DECISION NO. 67880

ORDER

Open Meeting
May 24 and 25, 2005
Phoenix, Arizona

BY THE COMMISSION:

Having considered the entire record herein and being fully advised in the premises, the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission") finds, concludes, and orders that:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On April 8, 1998, in Decision No. 60774, the Commission granted to ACC National Long Distance Corp. ("ANLDC" or "Applicant") a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity ("CC&N") authorizing it to provide competitive resold interexchange telecommunications services in Arizona.

2. ANLDC is a wholly-owned subsidiary of AT&T Corp.

3. On September 30, 2004, ANLDC filed an application to cancel its CC&N stating that the only service it currently offers is dial-around service under the name "Lucky Dog" that can be accessed by dialing the 10-10-345 access code. ANLDC requests that the Commission cancel the CC&N of ANLDC; approve the cancellation of ANLDC's tariff on one day's notice to the Commission after ANLDC's application is granted; and approve ANLDC's application without a hearing.

4. ANLDC stated in its application that on August 25, 2004, its affiliate AT&T Communications of the Mountain States, Inc. ("AT&T") filed a tariff to provide 10-10-345 service

1 under the Lucky Dog name, and that the tariff became effective September 24, 2004. ANLDC states
2 that AT&T seeks to cancel the ANLDC CC&N in order to reduce the number of corporate entities
3 providing the same or similar services.

4 5. ANLDC stated in its application that after its CC&N is cancelled, customers will be
5 able to complete dial-around calls by dialing the 10-10-345 access code with service provided by
6 AT&T, under the name "Lucky Dog."

7 6. Charges for calls made using 10-10-345 are billed to the customer through his or her
8 local telephone company on a per-use basis. Therefore there are no pre-existing or pre-subscribed
9 customers to notify regarding the requested CC&N cancellation.

10 7. ANLDC has not collected any advances, prepayments or deposits from customers.

11 8. On March 8, 2005, ANLDC filed a Notice of Filing Affidavit of Publication. ANLDC
12 caused to be published in The Arizona Republic, on February 24, 2005, a public notice addressed to 13 "Lucky Dog 10-10-345 Telephone Customers" that it has requested cancellation of its CC&N, but
14 that Lucky Dog 10-10-345 services will continue to be provided directly by AT&T at the same rates
15 and upon the same terms as were provided by ANLDC.

16 9. On April 25, 2005, the Commission's Utilities Division Staff ("Staff") filed a Staff
17 Report in this matter, recommending that ACC's CC&N be cancelled, and that it no longer be subject
18 to the requirements of Decision No. 60774.

19 10. The Staff Report states that there are no open complaints, inquiries or opinions
20 concerning ANLDC.

21 11. Numerous other carriers in Arizona offer services similar to those that ANLDC is 22 currently certificated to provide.

23 12. ANLDC's tariff should be cancelled at the same time as its CC&N.

24 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

25 1. Applicant is a public service corporation within the meaning of Article XV of the 26 Arizona Constitution and A.R.S. §§ 40-281 and 40-282.

27 2. The Commission has jurisdiction over Applicant and the subject matter of the 28 application.

3. The cancellation of Applicant's CC&N and its tariff is in the public interest.

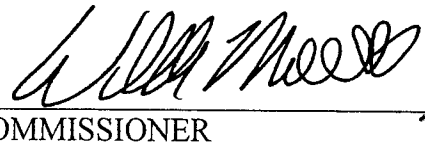

4. Staff's recommendations in Findings of Fact No. 9 are reasonable and should be adopted.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Certificate of Convenience and Necessity granted to ACC National Long Distance Corp. in Decision No. 60774 (April 8, 1998), and its tariff, are hereby cancelled.

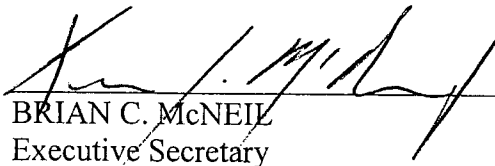

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Decision shall become effective immediately.

BY ORDER OF THE ARIZONA CORPORATION COMMISSION.
